

Ann Travis Consultant

Education

Associates Degree
Business Administration

Certified Dietary Manager

Certified Food Protection
Professional

Affiliations

Association for Healthcare
Foodservice (AHF)

Association of Food
Services & Nutrition
Professionals (ANFP)

2016 President's Award,
AHF, Outstanding Work
on 2016 National Convention

Past Texas AHF Chapter President

Experience

Ann is a Consultant for Ruck-Shockey Associates, Inc., an S-Corporation formed in 1997.

She has over 30 years of foodservice experience, in corporate food service management where she founded and operated a successful Catering Company for 13 years. (multi-service/multi-unit corporate facilities) Ann also has experience in healthcare dining services, meal delivery service programs and implementation processes. Ann has a working knowledge of hospitality management; including daily operations, transition of operations, strategic planning, retail trends and patient meal service models.

Ann successfully transitioned and overhauled an entire patient food services operation from contract to self-operation; as well as making strides in benchmarking and building network alliances along the way.

Ann's knowledge of small business operations affords her the ability to address issues and concerns in a unique manner utilizing expertise in both corporate dining and healthcare markets.

Selected Project Experience

Children's Medical Center
Dallas, TX

Gottlieb Memorial Hospital
Chicago, IL