Experience

Chef Salvatore has over thirty-five years of culinary, management, and ownership experience. He has a strong hospitality background having spent eight years as Executive Chef with Hyatt Hotels. Chef has owned two fine dining restaurants affording him an owner's fiscal responsibility. Additionally, he possesses an extensive product knowledge, procurement, and sourcing expertise after fifteen years as Director of Culinary Resources for Sysco.

Chef specializes in food service solutions that deliver profitable sales, a positive team atmosphere, and guest delight. He has lead total project management for many large scale events that require multiple timelines and deliverables coordinated across several companies and departments.

Salvatore's largest undertaking has been the rebranding of Sysco Metro NY for the geo-segment of Manhattan. This entailed graphic concepts, product alignment, and brand equity enhancement through multiple customer-facing events and management of local Corporate Citizenship.
